

Does Booktower Share My Data?

At Booktower, we don't sell or share your personal data for advertising purposes. However, running our service requires using some third-party tools to keep things secure, functional, and responsive.

We've carefully selected these providers and ensured they have strong privacy protections in place. Below you'll find a list of the external services that support our service, some of which you may interact with directly — including why we need them and where you can read their full policies.
